

Overland Adventure

On an overland tour you will most likely be travelling on a purpose built expedition vehicle. The vehicles are built for all conditions and most of them provide tents, tables, campstools and cooking equipment. Depending on an overland tour you're not just a passenger, you're a part of the crew. This means for example setting up camps, cooking and doing some shopping. Accommodation varies from staying in campsites and local hotels where available.

Urban Adventure

Urban Adventures are the day tour with a difference! In just a few hours you get under the skin of the city you're visiting - so you know it like a local! In fact many of our travellers are locals - seeing their own city in a different way! So whether it's your first time, or your hundredth, we're confident that Urban Adventures will open up a whole new dimension on many of your favourite cities around the world. Travelling to North or South America, Europe, Africa, the Middle East, Asia, Australia, New Zealand or the Pacific we have the tour for you.

Active Adventure

Active style is ideal for travelers who are looking for lots of activities, adventures and physical challenge. Active trips offer real life experiences that combine activities and many other experiences.

Gourmet Adventure

You can touch, smell, hear and take in the sight of a scenery. Now you can complement the scenery with the taste of regional cuisine to further immerse yourself in the local culture of your destination. Staying in boutique accommodation complete with a kitchen, you will learn to cook some traditional recipes of the region. If you are feeling adventurous, you can take a stroll to a delicatessen or farm to gather the ingredients and practise the local language.

18 - 30 something

Fun, Freedom & Flexibility. The tour is usually a small group of young like-minded individuals who happen to be following the same itinerary without the restrictions of a regimented tour. Best described as a combination of backpacking and small group travel at a budget do-it-yourself prices. The leader is a fellow traveller on the tour or you are greeted by a representative with local knowledge at each destination on the itinerary. With limited activities you can choose to do your own thing or hang out and do the group thing. Accommodation, transport and transfers en route are provided to help you get the most out of your stay.

Train Adventure

Train travel is an excellent overland option to experience a continent or two. For example, the demise of the Soviet Union in the early 90's made the Trans-Siberian Railway and Silk Road accessible again to travellers. At the heart of all overland adventures are the challenges and rewards of crossing the natural boundaries of desert and mountain and the remote national borders linking these diverse countries. While at the borders, beyond boundaries of language, the reward is the surprised look and friendly smile when the locals discover how far you have travelled from. But their smile and curiosity does not hide the pride that you have chosen their country are best remembered for.

Small Group Adventure

When you travel with a small group up to 16 like-minded adventurers to allow everyone on the tour to explore your destination's culture, people and environment up close. Depending on the tour, you will have a free day to discover a destination on your own.

Self-Drive Adventure

On a self-drive holiday you can drive with your own car or rent a car, book the accommodation you want to and see and do the things that you want. Alternatively, you can also do a packaged self-drive tour. These self-drive packages offer accommodation and usually some meals too. You will mostly be driving on your own, but some small day tours are included in the price.

Coach Tours

Travel in stunning cities by air-conditioned coach. You will have plenty of your own time to discover the city and enjoy the beaches, cafés, nightlife, it's all up to you! The group size is usually large, up to 48 passengers. Most tours include minimum 3 star accommodation with breakfast, depending on the tour you choose.

Antarctic & Arctic Adventure

For the adventurous travellers who want to explore rainforests, extreme polar environments, volcanic islands and to remote coastlines up close in comfort and style. You can participate in many optional activities led by a team of naturalists, biologists, anthropologists and historians!

Family Adventure

Family Adventure Tours have a lot to experience for the whole family. Tours let your kids discover the world as you do, you can involve them in the same activities as you do. You will always travel with an experienced team leader so you don't need to be an experienced traveler yourself.

Volunteer

Volunteer work may vary but you are sure to come back with a deep and genuine connection and memories to treasure for life. It is a great opportunity to engage in a colourful culture and landscapes through exhilarating, educational and immersive activities to arrive at a greater understanding of a community.

Safari Adventure

Safari is the Swahili word for long journey that has come to represent travel in Africa. This can range from the most basic of camping trips to a luxurious lodge based stay. And they can range from semi participation to total relaxation. Whatever your choice is, they are all designed to maximise your experience of amazing Africa.

Cultural Adventure
